22 Control of Sexual Entertainment Venues

The Committee considered a report of the Head of Safer Communities, Urban and Rural Services which outlined the changes made in Section 27 of the Policing and Crime Act 2009 amending Schedule 3 of the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1982 which enable local authorities to be able to determine applications for sexual entertainment venues.

The Licensing and Vehicle Parks Manager advised the Committee that prior to 1982 there was no control over the operation of sex establishments. Section 2 and Schedule 3 of the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act (LGMPA) 1982 enabled local authorities the power to licence sex establishments, defined in this particular Act as sex shops and sex cinemas. The Council adopted these provisions on 2 June 1983.

The Committee was advised that the Policing and Crime Act 2009 was introduced on 6 April 2010. This Act introduced changes to Schedule 3 of the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act. Local authorities had until 6 April 2011 to formally adopt the changes in the legislation. Failure to do so would mean that the Council would subsequently be required to consult local businesses and residents "as soon as is reasonably practicable" on whether or not to adopt the amended provisions.

The Licensing and Vehicle Parks Manager explained that Cherwell District Council currently had two premises that would require licensing under the new provisions. Both operators had been notified that they would be required to apply for new licenses to continue operating and provided with guidance on the process. The Committee was advised that should the amendments be adopted no new applications would be granted until such time that the council had a full policy in place to deal with such matters. In the interim, it was recommended that the Committee approve standard conditions to be attached to licences issued to the existing traders.

The Committee was advised that there was currently no fees set for applications in relation to sexual entertainment venues as this type of application had not previously existed. The Policing and Crime Act 2009 permitted local authorities to charge a reasonable and proportionate fee. The matter of fees would be taken into consideration when formulating the new policy and reviewed as part of the consultation in line with neighbouring authorities.

The Committee considered the implications of not adopting the legislative amendments and noted that if the sexual venue establishments were not regulated, they could continue to operate anyway but without any controls. By adopting the amendments and regulating the venues, all applications would be consulted upon and should a license be granted, Cherwell District Council would be able to apply controls and monitor compliance with these controls in the same manner as with all other licences granted by the authority.

Members discussed the timeframe for the implementation of the policy and agreed that it should be in place within 12 months. Members requested that the Licensing Officers provide updates to Committee members on the progress of developing the policy.

Resolved
