Gambling Act 2005 – Maximum Charges are set by legislation.	Various	Various			Statutory Fee - Fees have been set taking into account all possible maximum costs that could be associated with any application. Therefore it is likely that RPI would be our only option for increase unless there are any specific increases above RPI to costs. Any increase in fees must be forwarded to Gambling Commission and Department for Culture Media & Sports for review and scrutiny so any increases must be defensible. (Gambling Act 2005)

Car Parking

The Council specifically retained the right to set car parking charges for all of the car parks which are subject to the APCOA contract as this was a politically sensitive priority – the approach will be that APCOA will submit recommended approaches to how they think charges could be set so as to maximise profitability of the car parks but it remains entirely at the Council's discretion whether to accept those recommendations or to retain existing fee structures or to go in an entirely different direction
