CHERWELL DISTRICT COUNCIL PLANNING COMMITTEE

23 July 2009

WRITTEN UPDATES

Agenda Item 6 09/00225/F Fant Hill Farmhouse, Hook Norton

Application withdrawn

Agenda Item 7 09/00371/F Old Bartons, High St. Shutford

Amended condition 7 proposed

That the ground floor shall only be used for car storage, domestic storage or other ancillary domestic uses related to the house known as Old Bartons, but shall not be used for as either a separate residential unit or as ancillary residential accommodation

Agenda Item 10 09/00719/F Souldern Gate Garage

1. Late representation received from the Council's Landscape Planning Officer raising no objections subject to a condition requiring 4-5 metres wide landscaping strip to the front

2. Applicants agent confirms that they would be content to provide a 4 metres wide landscape strip

3. Amended condition 7 to refer to the requirement for a 4 metres wide landscape strip

4. Additional letter of representation received from resident of Souldern objecting on the grounds of visual intrusion including possible floodlighting, and road safety. Scepticism is expressed about the accuracy of the information about previous traffic generation and that planting to the front will reduce the visibility for emerging vehicles
