Chief Executive - Mid Year Review of Performance and Performance Targets for 2009/10

The Sub-committee considered a report submitted by the Chief Executive setting out her progress to date against her performance targets for the year 2009/10 at the mid year point. The Chief Executive outlined progress against each objective and answered detailed questions from members.

The Sub-committee noted that behind each objective were significant work streams and challenges. The Sub-committee were pleased with the progress made against the objectives and progress on the additional issues which the Chief Executive raised, which it was felt demonstrated an extremely pro-active approach.

The Sub-committee were keen to place on record their appreciation for the effort and commitment the Chief Executive continued to show in her work and as an individual wished to convey their sincere thanks for the service she had given to the Council which was often beyond the call of duty.

The Chief Executive thanked the Sub-committee for their kind words and continued support.

Resolved

- 1) That the progress reported by the Chief Executive against her objectives for 2009/10 be noted and endorsed.
- 2) That the thanks of the Sub-committee be recorded.

The meeting ended at 8.11 pm
