All charges are for the processing of 'normal' applications and assume that the processing costs are about the same in each case. However, this is not always so, and much higher costs can be incurred in processing some licence applications. It would be appropriate for additional fees to be levied in these cases, based on the extra work involved, or based on extra work involved in enforcement issues in respect of individual licences. Accordingly, the Head of Urban & Rural Services is able to levy an additional charge in respect of these licences, so as to ensure those who place the greatest burden on the system pay a proportionally higher charge.
The charges fixed above recognise the charge made to the Council for Criminal Records Bureau checks at 1 June 2006. If fees are increased by the CRB at any time, the charges will be reviewed.
A fee of £25.00 will be charged for any missed appointments & missed knowledge tests.
